

YCT, is pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Anastasiou as its new CEO.

Andrew joins YCT with an impressive background of involvement in organisations that support children and young people. Andrew founded and for 12 years ran the successful charity CHILD UK, which used sport as a mechanism to transform the lives of young people in deprived areas. He has more recently been involved in organisations in Hertfordshire and Essex, working on behalf of Streetgames UK.

With its three-year Strategic Plan in place the YCT Board and staff are looking forward to working with Andrew as YCT moves forward in its next phase of development.
